Editor's Note

To the Students of H. H. S.:

As you look at this yearbook in years to come, I hope that all of the 1957-1958 yearbook staff's work brings many memories and past experiences back to you. This book belongs to you. With this in mind, the Round-Up Staff has tried to portray the life and activities of Hereford High School students in pictures and words.

With people thinking today of modern thoughts, and designs which involve space. I feel certain this annual will always be up-to-date and will be one to appreciate and treasure. I would like to thank Mary Lou McCullough, a member of the 1957 Round-Up Staff, for the cover design.

It is the sincere wish of the staff that this ROUND-UP please YOU.

H.H.S. STUDENT COUNCIL

Hereford High School has a functioning Student Council organization; consisting of a President, Vice President, and Secretary, elected by the Student Body and of one representative from each home room. The parliamentarian is elected by the council. Officers are elected at the close of school each year and hold office for one year. Council members act as a link between home rooms and council problems: they recommend and sponsor worthwhile projects and activities which will add to the welfare of both the student and the school. All council activities are subject to the approval of the principal and other members of the administration.

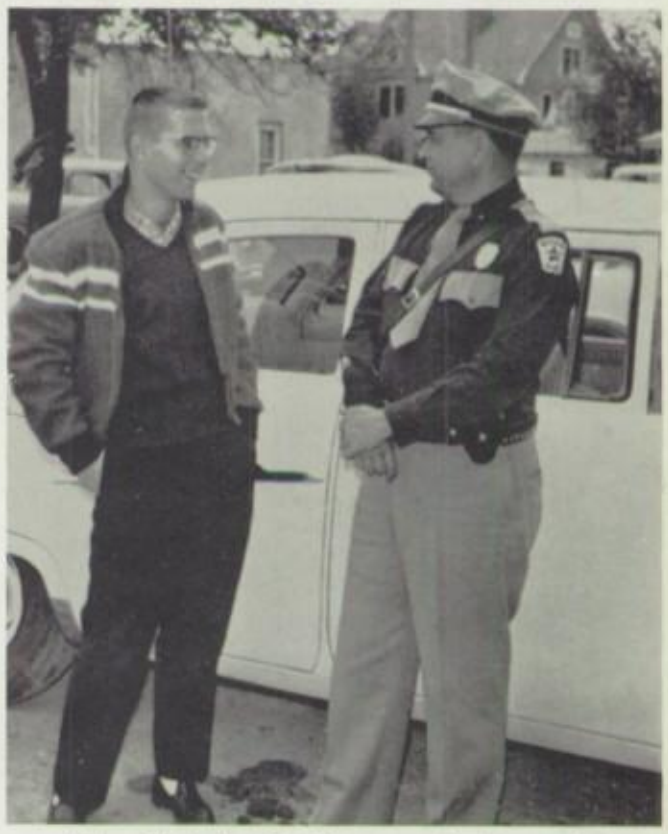
Top: Mr. McDougal, sponsor, looks on as Ron Cook, parliamentarian; Marilyn Newell, secretary; Terry Higgins, president; and Steve Slagle, vice president work on a certain phase of student council business.

Right: Charlotte Moore, Wade Douglas, Jo Ann Fowlkes, Carroll Willoughby, Terry Higgins, and Joan Brown work excitedly as they count the votes for the Student of the Month.

Bottom: The 1957-58 Student Council of Hereford High School.

The Optimist Club this year, for the first time, sponsored a Student Government Day on November 8. The officials, carefully selected by the student body, took responsible positions in city government. These officials are pictured above from left to right. Bottom row: Monta Kay Gragg, Linda Renfro, Eugenia Alexander, Phyllis Goettch, Rosa Lee Strange, Glenda Allison, Jeanette Rayburn. Top row: Corky Paetzold, Eddie Skypala, David Brumley, City Manager; Charles Burrus, Fred Lookingbill, Mayor; Gwin Morris, C. D. Fitzgerald, and Herman Jesko.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT DAY



The Chief of Police explains to his temporary successor, Gwin Morris, the fundamentals of law and order.

Meter Maids, Linda Renfro and Eugenia Alexander, have a busy day issuing parking tickets.

Glenda Allison observes some of the duties of the City Secretary.

Charles Burrus, Corky Paetzold, and Eddie Skypala learn some of the functions of the city government.

SILVANA FELIZIA FROM ITALY EXCHANGE STUDENT

The exchange student for 1957-1958 is Silvana Felizia. She was chosen from the American Field Service in New York. The students learn of this service through their high school. If they wish to apply, they take a test and are chosen from that. The students get a recommendation from their professor on their personal qualities as well as academic ones. This service is to promote better understanding and relationship between the countries of the world.

Silvana made many speeches over the "Golden Spread" at luncheons and dinners.

The F.H.A. Girls gave Silvana a Christmas party. Wonder what she could be getting?

Silvana and the exchange student from Italy to Amarillo, Roberto Ruffino, did a typical Italian folk dance for the Red Cross talent show.

Silvana seems to be having a lot of fun, on a typical Texas hayride!

Disbelief registers on the faces of the greenhands as they take the term literally.

Do you think this is for real??

CHEERLEADER TRYOUTS

During the meetings, which are held twice a month, programs of various kinds are presented.

Officers are: Vice President, Bette Noland; President, Eugenia Alexander; Secretary, Janie Bookout; and Parliamentarian, Gwin Morris.

This group seems to be studying hard on the planning of club activities.

Planning for future speech contests is also a group activity that members enjoy.

The finger of suspicion seems to be pointing at this trio as they receive some helpful advice from Mr. Hicki, producer and director of the All-School Play.

Horror grips these students as they gaze downward to determine the condition of the body at the bottom of the fire escape.

An argument among the fathers of the students participating in the mock trial is being witnessed by the rest of the parents as they are waiting for the trial to begin.

STUNT NIGHT

"Banquet Time," presented by the Junior Class, was awarded first prize. Pictured above is the cast of this stirring drama.

Stunt Night this year was presented on December 10. This annual event is sponsored by the Round-Up Staff and all proceeds go to help finance the yearbook. Stunts from various organizations and classes added to the crowning of the annual queen help to make this event a highlight. One of the most spirited contests each year is the Annual Queen race. Each class nominates a girl to represent them. At the close of a previously set time, the class that raises the most money, has their candidate crowned Queen of the Annual.

Hi-Y's version of "The Adventures of Ting-a-Ling" as he visits Hereford High School, won second place.

"A Modern Band," presented by the band, took a melodious third place.

ANNUAL QUEEN CORONATION

The climax of the evening came when Jo Ann Fowlkes was crowned Queen of the Annual by her escort Gene Waits.

"FOOTBALL BANQUET"

Don Bomar looks hungry, doesn't he?

Leslie Sharp, co-captain of the football team, makes a speech to the football boys and guests.

One of the highlights of the school year is the annual Football Banquet. Attending this Banquet on December 14, were the football boys, their dates and parents. A guest speaker, the Amarillo Sandie Coach Kerbel, gave some tips on training.

James Teeas seems to be having quite a time. Trying to eat, that is!

SNAPS

Steve Slagle, one of the Herd's tall boys goes up and wins the jump.

Lanky Jim lays one in for two more points in the Herd's red-hot district race.

Come on, "podner!" Big Jim is there to protect Ken Clearman as he lays in another basket.

Slagle and Higgins are there to rebound as Lanky Jim fires one in from the corner.

Big Terry, Hereford's no. 1 TALL boy and rebound snatcher puts his jump shot into action.

Up! Up! and Big Steve wins the toss up and the Ramblin Herd rolls on.

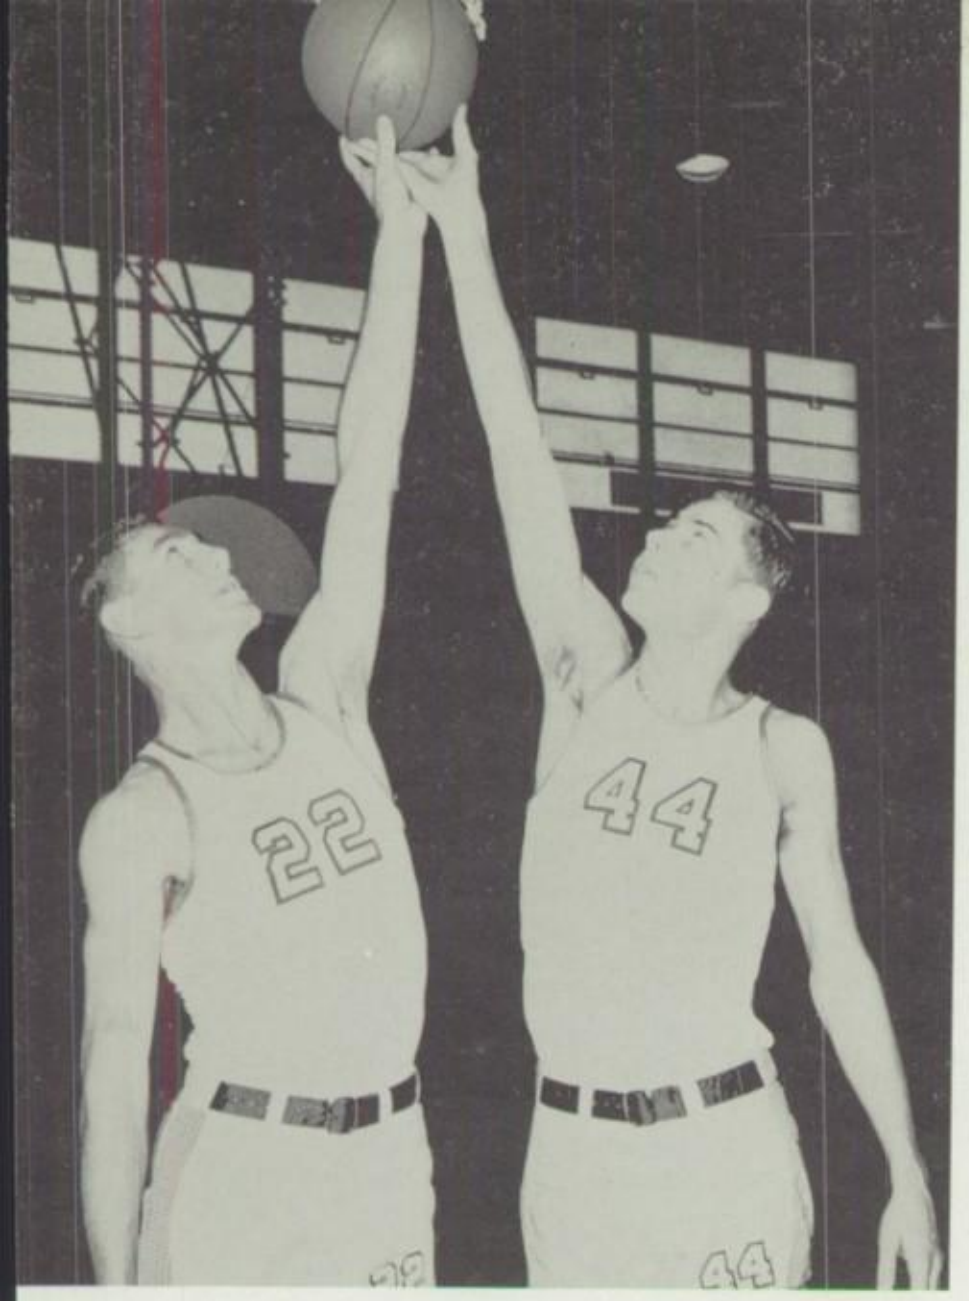
"B" TEAM

The "B" Team this year composed of Freshmen and Sophomores and under the guiding hand of Rookie Rogers, gained valuable experience for the coming years. They played teams from all over the area and participated in several tournaments.

Coach Rogers and his two captains, Charley Thomas and Ronnie Botkin.

A "B" Teamer goes into his jump and the herd rolls again.

The 1957-58 Hereford Basketball "B" Team.

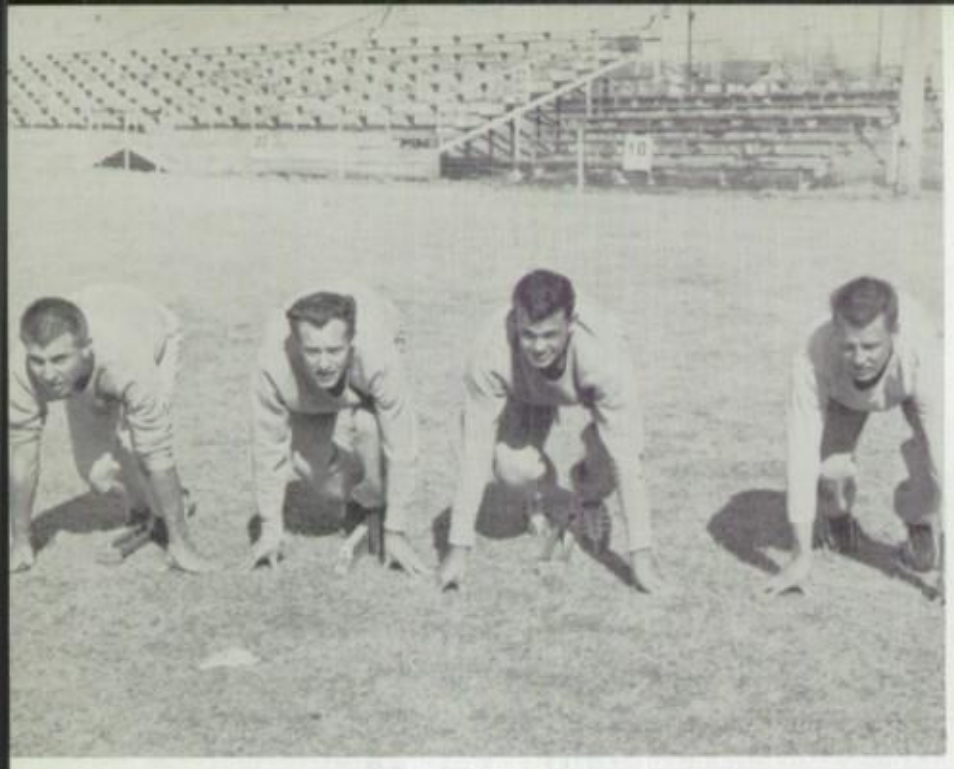


Captains for this year's team are Jim Curtsinger and Terry Higgins. Both will be missed next year.

Coach Cuby Kitchens and the Manager for this year's team, Butch Smith. Coach Kitchens runs the boys up and down the court and Butch patches up their blistered feet.

The second the buzzer rang after defeating the Dumas Demons, quite a bit of commotion occurred in the Hereford gym. The Cheerleaders led the excited crowd to the floor to congratulate the mighty Whitefaces.

Everyone was so proud of our Hereford Whitefaces that it took no time at all to fill the gym floor with the many cheers and congratulations to the boys.



Getting ready for the cinder track season are James Teeas, Durward Jacobs, Danny Martin, and Don Scott. These boys will carry the load in the 100 yard dash and 440 relay.

TRACK AND FIELD

Durward Jacobs and Danny Martin, two of Herford's veteran tracksters, are practicing for the sprints.

Jeff Gomez, Sophomore field man, should go far in the discus.

The shot-put squad is Jerry Clark, Edwin Thomas, and Terry Hodges.

The discus squad is made up of James Brogdon, Deanie Hudson, Leon Vogler, and Jeff Gomez.

Julian Gandy, David Dzuik, Euel Perry, Jackie McNeese, and Curtis Ritchie are suited out and ready to begin their weight lifting routines.

James Usleton, Eugene Baldwin, Allen Cansler, Eddie Skypala, Edmond Burgan, and Wayne Milner use weights to build stomach, neck, shoulder, and chest muscles.

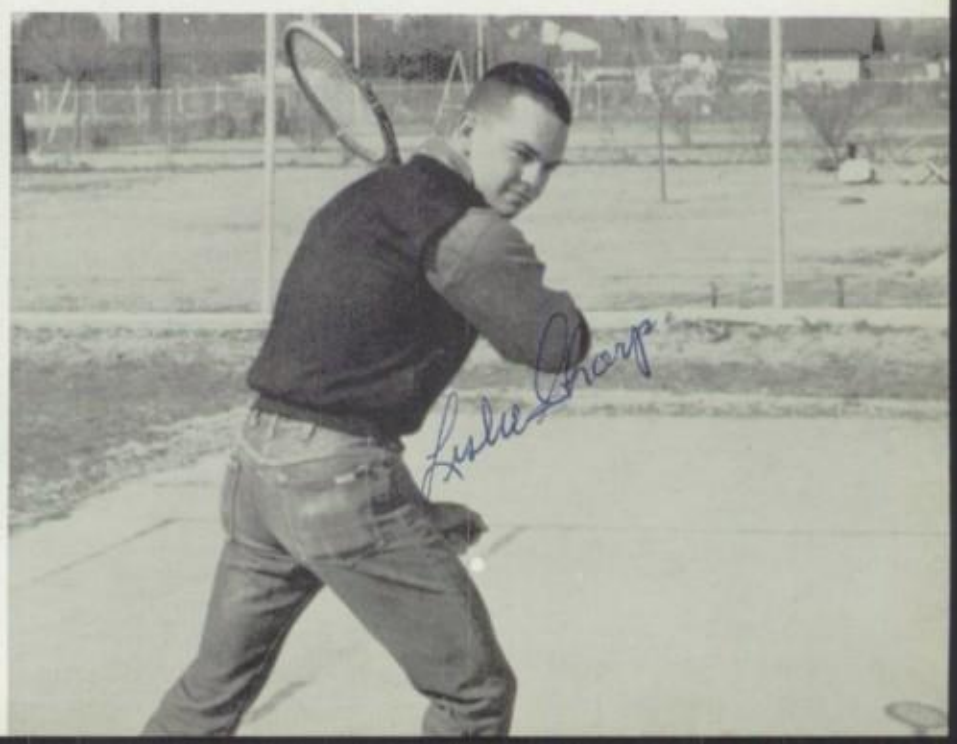
Jerry Clark is one of our Freshman shot-putters who should go far.

Wade Douglas goes high in the air to return the hard-hit tennis ball. He is a Senior and one of our tennis team.

A speedy fivesome, Richard Leggitt, Wade Douglas, Ronald Zimmerman, James Brogdan, and Leslie Sharp make up this year's tennis team. They do their own coaching and work out during Activity Period.



A "mean" backhand is displayed here by Leslie Sharp as he grits his teeth and gets ready for the approaching ball.

SCHOOL

That terrible night we had mud, mud, mud!

Twirlers, it wasn't cold, was it?

Our ever-loving supporter, Mrs. Buck, looks rather excited, dosen't she?

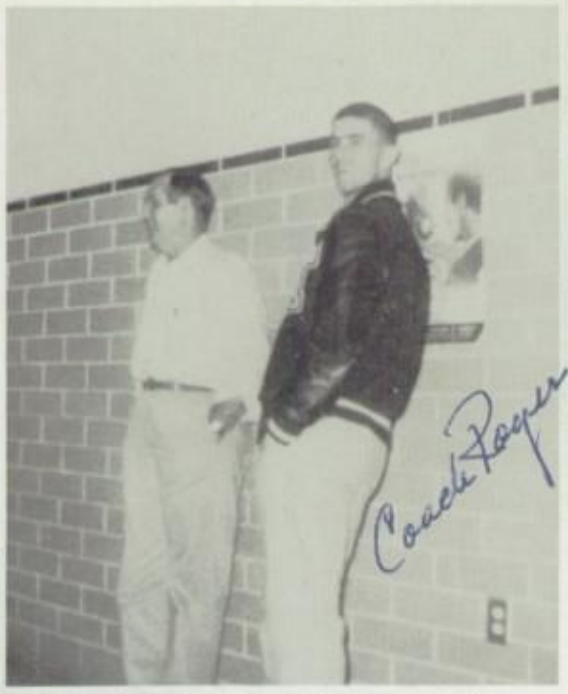
Even though we had snow, the school spirit never dampened an ounce!

This was a day we shall all long remember!

We believe that the school spirit Hereford High has shown this year, is undoubtedly the best ever in Hereford High School. Through snow, wind, rain, and other seemingly unbearable things, we always had our students out yelling for our teams. It takes everyone fighting to make an army, and we feel the same about our school. A great deal of thanks should go to every single person who helped keep that much needed and sought for goal, in our school this year, SCHOOL SPIRIT.

I don't think we need to explain what is happening???

SPIRIT



Coaching must be a hard job, reckon???

You'd think the Cheer-leaders were sad!

And away we go!!

Just trying to think things out

Mr. Jones, a very hard worker for the students.

The students participate in yelling, just before leaving for Levelland.

The 1957 cheerleaders are Dorothy Williams, Dolly Paetzold, Carrol Willoughby, Martha Bookout, head cheerleader, and Betty Ferguson. Mascot is Becky Godwin.

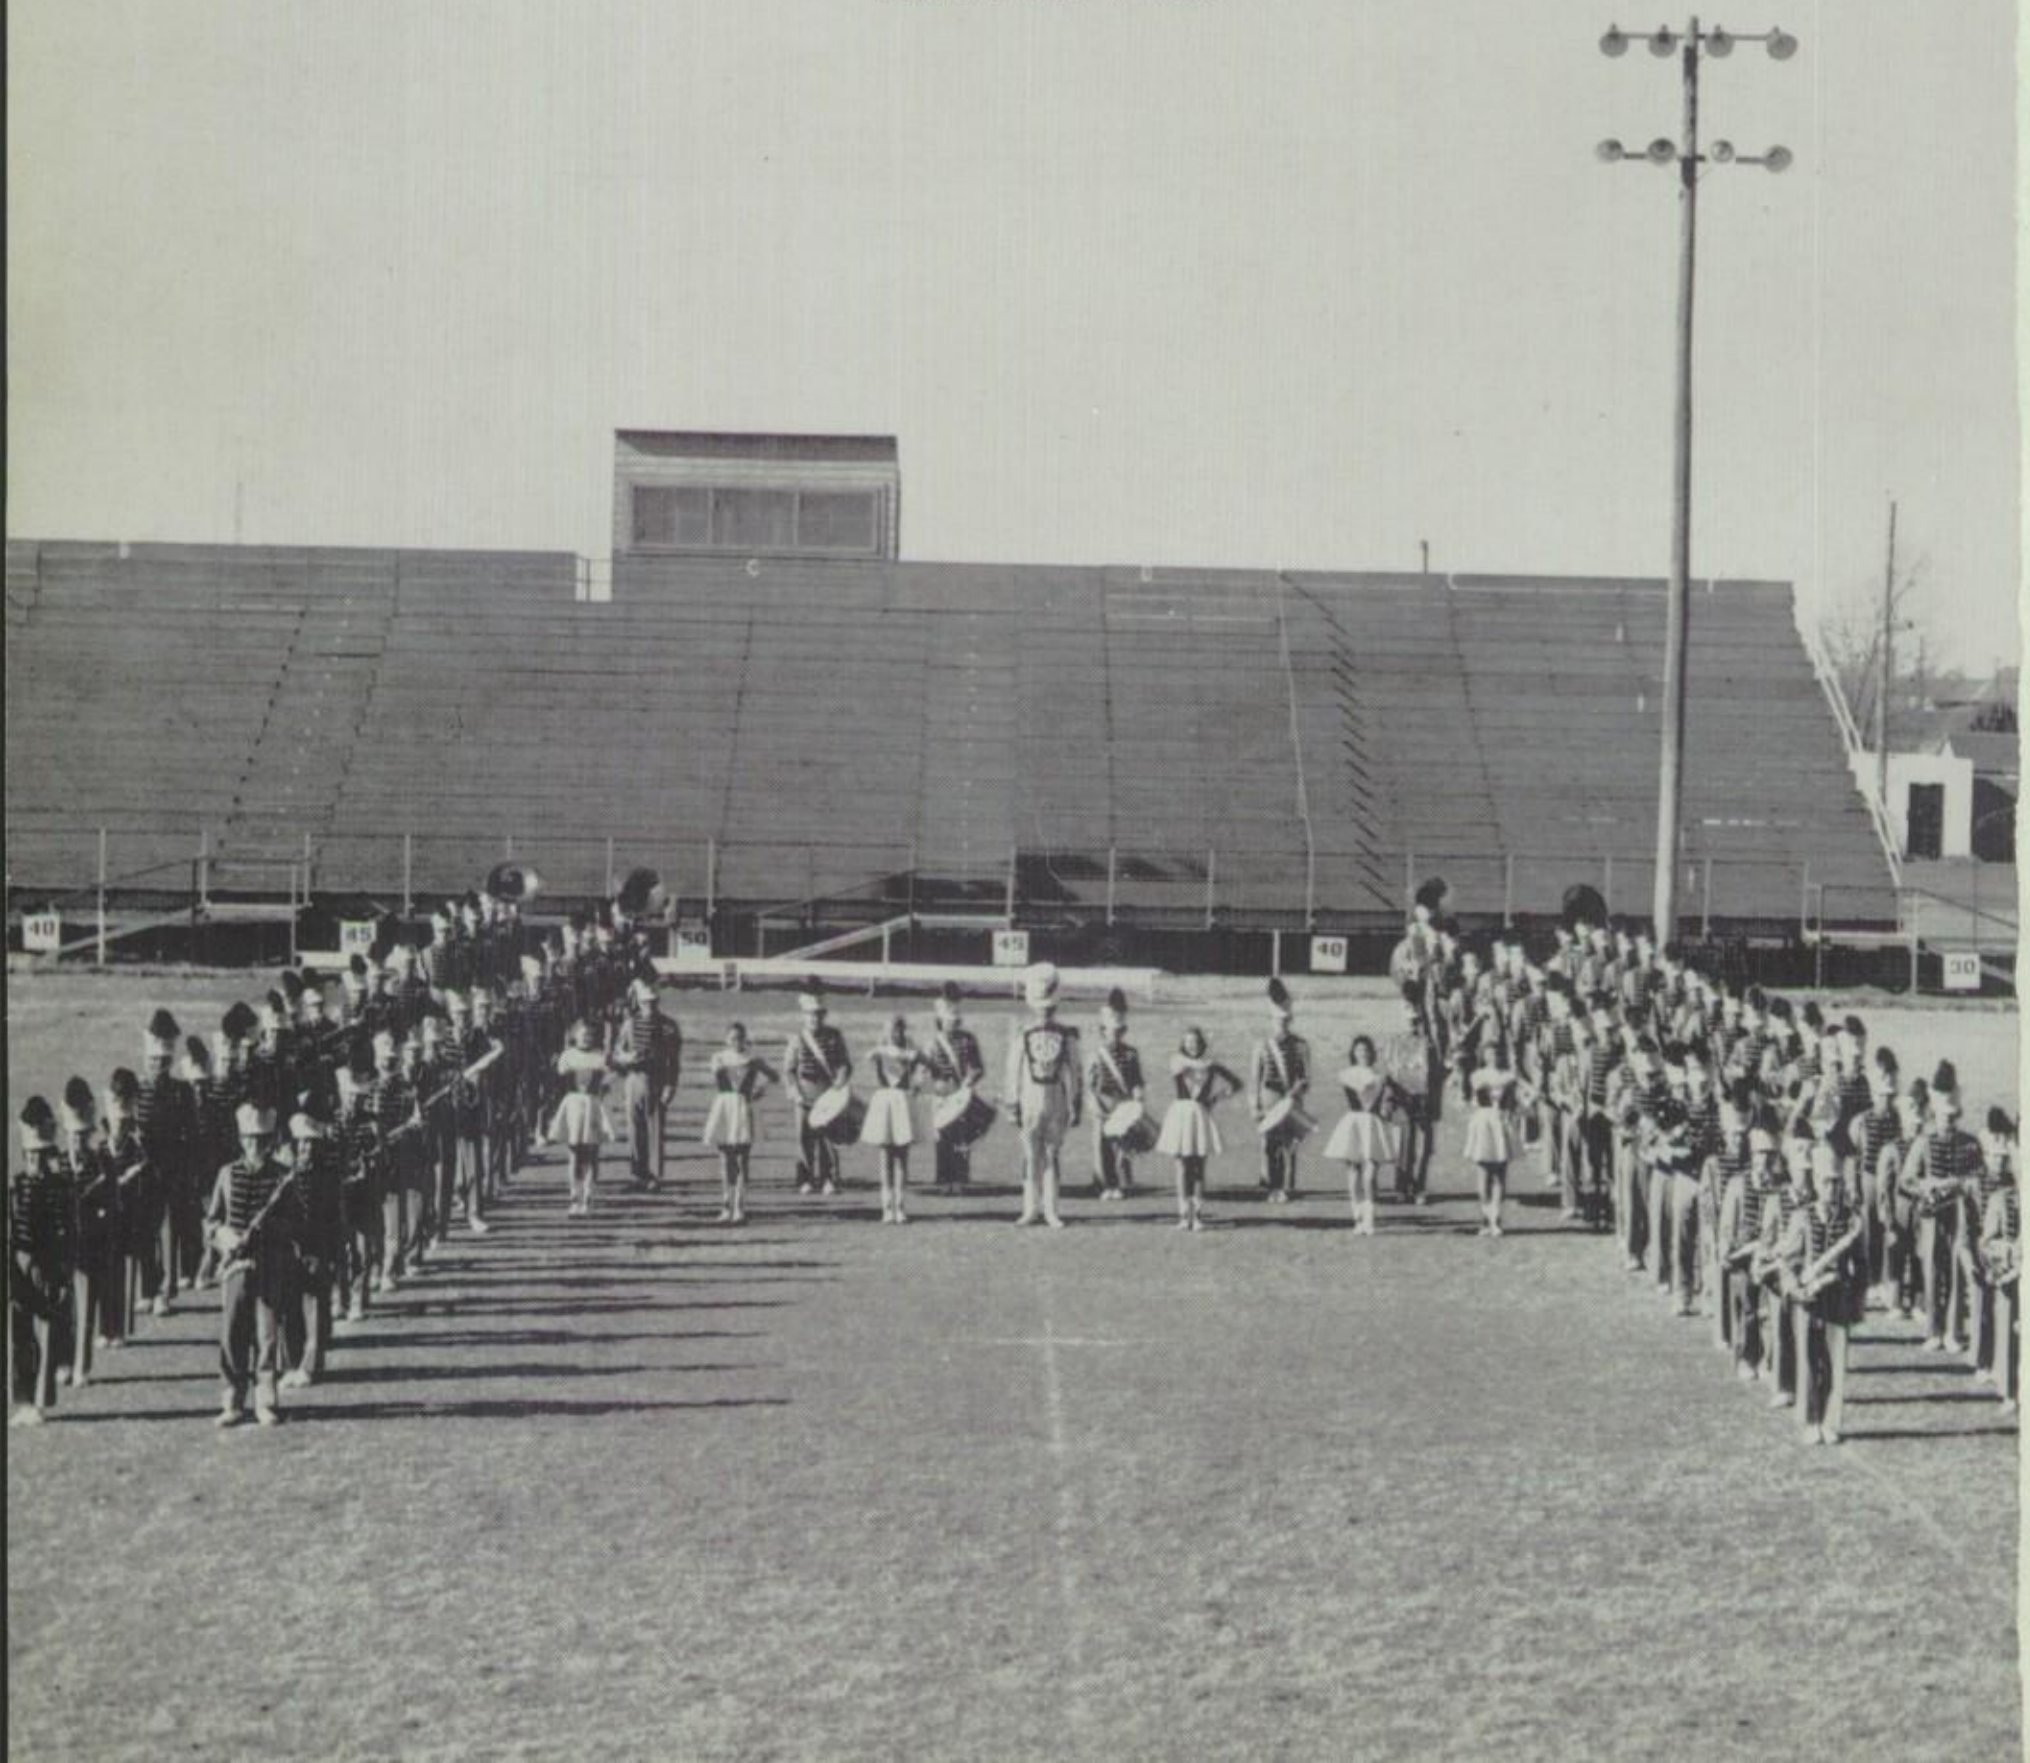
Here's a toast to thee!



The Book
17 2006

Dearest Doug,

I could never express all the wonderful times I have had with you. I wish I could continue, but I can see things are coming to an end. And for your information I think a Rodeo guy is the best kind of guy for you to find someone like that. I loved them, you could tell by just looking at them, that they would do anything to make you happy. Because you always deserved the best to be treated like the right person was right there, but I'm sorry to say that will never happen. But you've got a life to live with, I'm sure you will find someday soon. But for now I had to worry about them no matter what. I guess I had to sum up some facts, merely that I meant Better Half (quote), I hope that you find happiness with all my heart. Happy Birthday Love You Always, Madelyn

The night has a thousand eyes

And the day but one;

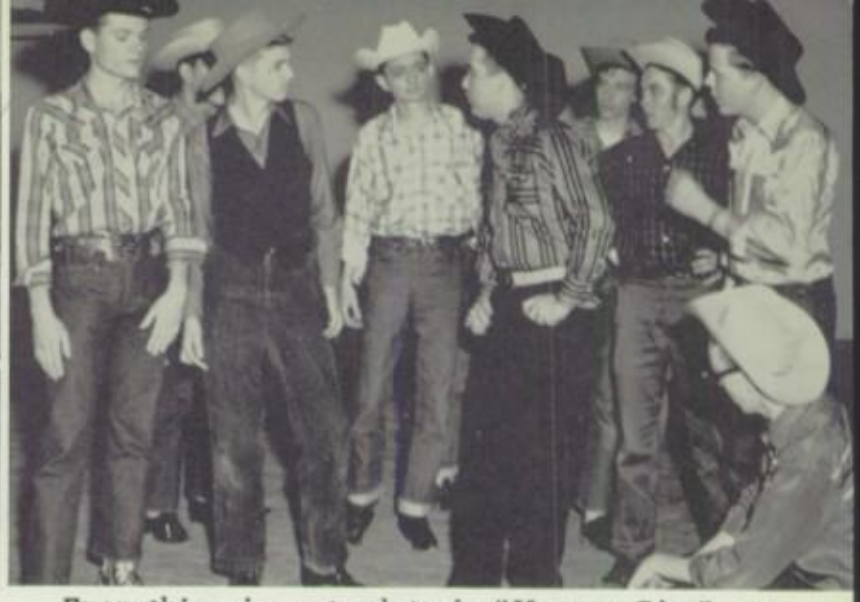
Yet the light of the bright world dies

With the dying sun.

OKLAHOMA

Oklahoma, directed by Don Moore, was presented by the Mixed Choir and was received heartily by two packed audiences.

"If I was to 'ast' you there'd be a way to take you!" says Curley (Gwin M.) to Laurey (Sharon S.)



Everything is up to date in "Kansas City" says Will (Carrol W.) to Ike (John G.) and Slim (Doug W.) while the other cowhands are amazed.

"You know Jud, with a rope like this, you could hang yourself!" says Curley to Jud (Leon R.) in the smokehouse scene.

"You mean fancy drawers, Peddler man?" says Aunt Eller (Karen A.) to Ali Hakim (David L.) as Ado (Emily P.) looks on, and Laurey examines her Elixir of Egypt.

"Now this Elixir will help me make up my mind," Laurey tries to convince the girls.

"But Will, couldn't you give me just one of those Persian Good-byes?" asks Ado Annie (Linda N.)

Laurey (Carla Sue C.) is feeling proud of herself as she sings "Many a New Day Will Dawn" and the girls all agree with her.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The theme for the Junior-Senior Banquet this year was "All roads lead to Rome" in honor of Silvana Felizia, our exchange student. It was held May 10, 1958.

Shown entering the grape arbor are: (from left to right) Janie Bookout, Bobby Shelton, Jeanne Brown, Don Jackson, Dollie Prowell, Pete Plank, Ron Cook, and Eugenia Alexander.

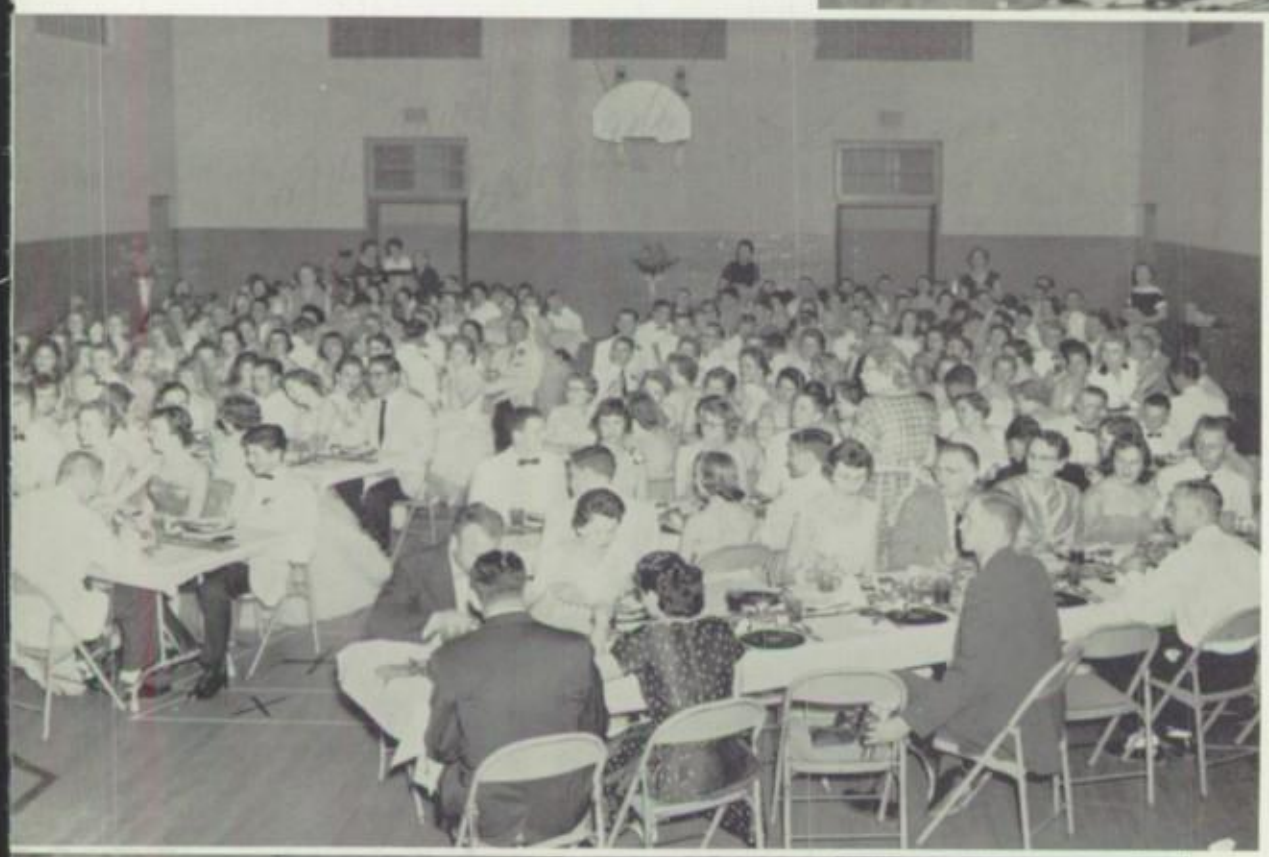
The head table was occupied by the officers of the Junior and Senior classes and the honor guest, Silvana Felizia. Boys and girls from the Sophomore class served.

Part of our entertainment was given by Rose Acker and Mr. Sciumbato and his two sons.

This behind-the-scene photograph shows a little of the great preparation that went into the banquet. Pictured here are: Janie Bookout, Sylvia Wiman, and Linda Hair.

MUSIC BANQUET

This is the head table at the Music Banquet. Toastmaster was Carroll Willoughby, President of the Mixed Choir.



A large crowd attended the banquet and they seemed to enjoy it very much.

D.E. BANQUET

This was the head table at the D. E. banquet. The feature speaker was Joe Nisbit.

The D. E. students and employers had an excellent dinner and were pleased to have some D. E. students and teachers from Amarillo visiting with them.

THE DAY THE ANNUALS CAME

A sneak preview was given to members of the staff just prior to handing them out to the other students. As you can see, there are mixed emotions!

A reaction of the students, as shown by Twyla Springer and Sandra Roberson, about the annual was joy and surprise. Almost everything everyone thought it was the best yearbook yet!

Although hot and crowded, the students of H. H. S. will long remember the day they received cokes and Annuals.

This was a typical scene the day the Annuals were distributed. This group seems to be very busy with the "thing" of the moment, signing yearbooks.

The proud "parents" of the 1958 Round-Up systematically handed out annuals, instead of the traditional cigars, to the students of Hereford High School.

CONVENTIONS

Mr. McDougal packs the last suitcase as Beth Lemons, Steve Slagle, Terry Higgins, and Joy Wiman prepare to go to Abilene for the Student Council Convention.

Silvana Felizia and Larry Edwards are dressed as typical Spaniards at Fiesta time during the Spanish Club convention at Midland.

Patsy Loerwald, Dolly Paetzold, Betty Paetzold, Natha Bryan, Margaret Boomer, Betty Hagar, and Sheryl Patterson, were the delegates this year to the Annual F. H. A. convention at San Antonio.

(Left) Emily Pavlicek, Dee Buck, Mrs. McDougal, Connie Robinson, and Montie Hale pose briefly for this shot just prior to leaving for Denton and the annual F. T. A. convention.

(Right) Jim Culpepper, Nancy Godwin, Pat Dawson, and Wade Crist are enjoying the festivities at Austin during the D. E. convention this year.

3. Terry is really having to fight to get the ball.

5. Everybody was happy, happy, happy, at Austin.
6. You can see very well that we put up a good fight at Austin.

ACTIVITIES AND AWARDS

Silvana Felizia looks pleased with the camera the Tri-Hi-Y gave her at a special supper in her honor.

Gayle Wagoner, a Senior at high school was chosen Miss R. E. A. of Deaf Smith County.

Jo Ann Fowlkes and Fred Lookingbill were chosen to represent Hereford High School at West Texas in a Personality Pageant.

After the long ride on the buses to Enid, the students were ready for a rest.

Gayle Blythe is shown presenting the school with an award won by the Whiteface staff at the Panhandle High School Press Association.

ELECTIONS AND AWARDS ASSEMBLY

Annette Gould, campaigning for Jackie Mudrock, helped to create interest in the election for Vice-President.

Deanna Kreighauser, Pam Clay, and Puddles P. Sawyer did a great job backing Karen Daniels for Secretary.

As you can see by this picture, the campaign for Gene Meacham was a rousing one.

We had very good spirit and co-operation at the Student Council elections this year. Running for secretary were Sandy Blythe, Karen Sue Daniels, Ronnie Botkins, Carol Hammett, Virginia Higgins, and Lou Ann Higgins, Candidates for Vice-President were Herman Jesko, Gene Meacham, Jackie Mudrock, Beth Lemons, and Terry Hodges. Competing for President were Steve Slagle, Gwin Morris, and Bill Melugian. Results of the election were: President, Gwin Morris; Vice-President, Beth Lemons; and Secretary, Karen Daniels.

This group of people were presented with awards at the Awards Assembly for their outstanding acheivements of the past year.

SENIOR PLAY AND SENIOR ASSEMBLY

Poodles (Charlene Bowen) and Maggie (Virginia Cox) try to persuade Beanie (Donald Willoughby) to take Maggie to a weiner roast.

The Senior play, "Love Is In The Air," shows Gramps, (Robert Brown) giving Hugo (Fred Lookingbill), and Roscoe (Alan Neff) some advice.

John Beasley and Betty Ferguson are pictured as they read the last will and testament of the Senior Class.

Take four imaginative juniors and tell them to write a prophecy for the Senior class and the result will be an interesting class prophecy as was given this year by Gwin Morris, Bette Noland, Karen Albracht, and Jim Bradley.

The Senior class on the day of the Senior Assembly.

Graduation Day

The speaker for the Baccalaureate Service was the Rev. B. H. Baldwin.

Receiving the honor of Valedictorian was Terry Higgins; of Salutatorian, Godfrey Baldwin.

"GRADUATION"

These graduates were given recognition as honor students and received special scholarships. They are Godfrey Baldwin, Shirley Pierce, Stella Hunter, Terry Higgins, Tina Beth Hazelwood, Susie Loerwald, Dorothy Williams, and Lynda Phillips. Mrs. A. O. Thompson was honored as a member of the first graduating class of H. H. S.

The graduating class of 1957-58 listens attentively to the Baccalaureate speaker as he tries to give them some helpful advice.
